

Versum Materials' Board of Directors Rejects Unsolicited Tender Offer from Merck KGaA

March 29, 2019

Urges Stockholders Not to Tender Their Shares

Determines to Engage in Discussions with Merck

TEMPE, Ariz.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 29, 2019-- Versum Materials, Inc. (NYSE: VSM) today announced that its board of directors (the "Versum Board"), after careful consideration and consultation with its financial and legal advisors, unanimously determined to reject the unsolicited tender offer from Merck KGaA ("Merck") to acquire all outstanding shares of Versum for $48 per share in cash (the "Offer"). The Versum Board determined that the Offer is not in the best interests of Versum or its stockholders. Accordingly, the Versum Board recommends that Versum stockholders reject the Offer and not tender their shares into the Offer.

The reasons for the Versum Board's recommendation to reject the Offer are set forth in a Schedule 14D-9, being filed by Versum with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") today, which is also being disseminated to stockholders. Versum's Schedule 14D-9 will also be available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov and on Versum's website at www.versummaterials.com.

Versum also announced today that a meeting occurred between representatives of Versum and Merck pursuant to a limited waiver granted by Entegris, Inc. (NASDAQ: ENTG) under the previously announced merger agreement between Versum and Entegris. After consideration of such meeting, the Versum Board has determined, after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, that Merck's proposal could reasonably be expected to result in a superior proposal under Versum's merger agreement with Entegris and has authorized Versum's management and its advisers to engage in further discussions with, and provide non-public information to, Merck.

The Versum Board has not changed its recommendation in support of the pending all-stock merger of equals with Entegris.

Lazard and Citi are serving as financial advisors to Versum and Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP is serving as legal counsel.
